The Female Reporter starts "A boy trying to pursue Girls is Common but Boys pursuing Boys has become a Fashion. Gay Culture in Hyderabad is increasing drastically. All the gay men in Hyderabad go to clubs or pubs once every week or ten days to celebrate. They Drink and Dance with whomever they want."

After having shown footage of a club she continues "This is 3 star pub in Secunderabad where software employees, rich kids and students party on weekends but there is a specialty to this party, the people you see in the video drunk dancing are Gay. Having got to know about the Gay Parties the TV 9 team went to investigate and found the truth. Meeting, drinking and partying like this on weekends has become a ritual to the gay men in this city."

"Taking private party permission as an excuse all the gay men unite and party. It might sound astonishing to hear but this is the reality. There are also very popular websites for gay men on the internet. Planetromeo.com is the most famous website amongst others. The numbers of users from Andhra Pradesh in this site are 6,500 out of which 4,604 are from Hyderabad alone. They login, message, chat, meet and celebrate using this site. Any given time, there are about 200 users online on the site from the city. Software Employees and students are most users who fall prey to this GAY CULTURE."

"Sexy pictures, fashionable clothes, thrilling behavior and being able to communicate properly are the weapons used by a gay man to attract another gay Man. The picture that you see is of Person (D) who happens to be a software engineer who has taken sexy pictures of himself and uploaded on the site to attract other gay men."

Phone Conversation ends. The Female Reporter starts talking "A lot of employees in higher positions, white collared workers, highly qualified students are becoming slaves to lifestyle which is against nature. Taking this as an advantage some people are blackmailing them."

After showing a couple more pictures they stop at a picture. "The man in the pic is Person(F), lives in Mehdiapatnam, works at a software firm. To tell the truth, this is a part time job for him. His actual "dhandu" is blackmailing. Talking to new people, getting sexual pleasures from them and then black mailing them by taking pictures and videos of them and snatching money from the same people for those pics and videos is Person(F)'s Job. While some do it for new pleasures, some get spoiled by friends, others do it for the craving of money, the remaining are vowed by the lust. Some of them have changed it into a business by capturing teenagers mind and get them into this hell. Getting them into this Anti-Social lifestyle. In the city, A lot of clubs give permission to organize gay parties without letting the rest of the world know."
